COMMUNITY CORNER

Are you interested in taking over a small raised bed or planter at the Community Corner for a season or two? Already, groups have volunteered to work on a planter and one of the raised beds. Perhaps you could get together with other friends and develop your own patch. The beds are filled with soil and ready to go. Contact the clerk if you are interested.

For more information about Foulridge Community Corner, please go to the website or Facebook or contact the clerk.

OVER 60s CHRISTMAS LUNCH REPORT

Regardless of having to change the date for the Xmas lunch, the event was a roaring success: The elections were to be held on the same day as the lunch which is held in the village hall and which also doubles as the polling station! Nevertheless eventually, the date was changed to the previous day and everything fell into place as usual with everyone having a brilliant time. Jess, the caterer provided 80 over 60s with a super delicious 4 course Christmas meal with no hassle and left the kitchen in a spotless condition. The singer/entertainer, Danielle, was amazing and helped with the quiz and raffle. Many thanks to the following for their generous donations towards the raffle: Asda, Greggs, Oddies, Sainsburys, Foulridge Social Club and Inghams Butchers for selling the tickets. The organisers have been congratulated for their excellent planning.

FREE SWIMMING INITIATIVE

Foulridge Parish Council are again supporting and contributing towards FREE swimming for St Michael & All Angel's school children. They will each be given a pass to be used at any of the 3 swimming pools in Pendle during the school holiday periods. All adult attendances are free when accompanying a child who is under the age of 8. Any children residing in Foulridge but who attend school outside of the Parish can still access free swimming by producing proof of address information to any of the pool receptionists.

RECIPE BOOKLET

The Christmas project is now on sale! Bringing to you a convenient, A5, wipe Clean RECIPE BOOKLET with removable pages for easy shopping lists. We have been to great lengths obtaining special permission to print recipes from celebrity chefs and Royalty.
